

Thursday, July 31, 2014 (at 11:07 o'clock A.M.).

At the request of the Chair (Mr. Donato), the members, guests and employees joined with him in reciting the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

Pledge of allegiance.

Guests of the House.

During the session, Mr. Miceli of Wilmington took the Chair, declared a brief recess, and introduced Navy Seal Senior Chief Thom Shea, a twenty-three year Navy Seal veteran, who served as a top leader, marksman and frogman. Touring in three wars, Chief Shea earned numerous commendations, including the Silver Star, Bronze Star with Valor and Army Commendation with Valor. Currently, he acts as CEO of Adamantine Alliance, a human performance and coaching company as well as Director of Operations and Sales for BarberWind Turbines. Chief Shea also authored the book “Unbreakable: A Navy Seal’s Way of Life”, which was released in May, 2014. Despite all of these obligations, he still finds time to be a remarkable husband to his wife, Stacy and a remarkable father to his children, Autumn, Garrett and Chance. He was joined by Paul Cardello, Wayne Fox and Bob Regan, leaders from the organization “IPods for Wounded Veterans”. Chief Shea then addressed the House briefly.

Subsequently the bill came from the Senate with the endorsement that it had been amended by said branch by inserting before section 1 (as printed) the following two sections:

“SECTION 1. Subsection (s) of section 1J of chapter 69 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2012 Official Edition, is hereby amended by adding the following 2 sentences:— A receiver for a chronically underperforming school shall not be required by contract to indemnify and hold harmless the commonwealth against any and all claims, liabilities and costs which arise out of the receiver's performance of its role in the creation or implementation of the turnaround plan. In connection with the performance of its role in the creation or implementation of the turnaround plan, the receiver may: (i) sue and be sued only to the same extent and upon the same conditions that a municipality may be sued; (ii) receive and disburse funds for the chronically underperforming school; and (iii) solicit and accept grants or gifts for the chronically underperforming school.

SECTION 2. The second paragraph of subsection (a) of section 1K of said chapter 69, as so appearing, is hereby amended by adding the following 2 sentences:- A receiver for a chronically underperforming district shall not be required by contract to indemnify and hold harmless the commonwealth against any and all claims, liabilities and costs which arise out of the receiver's performance of its role in the creation or implementation of the turnaround plan. In connection with the performance of its role in the creation or implementation of the turnaround plan, the receiver may: (i) sue and be sued only to the same extent and upon the same conditions that a municipality may be sued; (ii) receive and disburse funds for the chronically underperforming district; and (iii) solicit and accept grants or gifts for the district.”.

The amendment was referred, under Rule 35, to the committee on Bills in the Third Reading.

Subsequently, the amendment (having been reported by said committee to be correctly drawn) was considered forthwith; and it was adopted, in concurrence.

Papers from the Senate.

The Senate Bill clearing titles to foreclosed properties (Senate, No. 1987, amended), came from the Senate with the endorsement that said branch had concurred with the House in its amendment in section 2, in lines 21 to 34, inclusive, by striking out the paragraph contained in those lines and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph:

“The prior paragraph shall not apply when: (i) a legal action to challenge the validity of the foreclosure sale is commenced by any party entitled to notice of sale under section 14 in a court of competent jurisdiction and a true and correct copy of the complaint or other pleading asserting such challenge in the legal action is duly recorded in the registry of deeds for the county or district where the subject real property lies or is duly filed in the land court registry district prior to the deadline; or (ii) a challenge to the validity of the foreclosure sale is asserted as a defense or counterclaim in a legal action in a court of competent jurisdiction by any party entitled to notice of sale under section 14 who continues to occupy the mortgaged premises as such party's principal place of residence and, within 60 days thereof or prior to the deadline, whichever is later, a true and correct copy of any pleading asserting such challenge in the legal action is duly recorded in the registry of deeds for the county or district where the subject real property lies or is duly filed in the land court registry district, regardless of whether such challenge is asserted prior to the deadline. However, following the entry of a final judgment in such a legal challenge and the final resolution of any appeal of that judgment, the affidavit shall immediately become conclusive evidence of the validity of the sale, if the final judgment concludes that the power of sale was duly exercised. If the final judgment concludes that the power of sale was not duly exercised, the foreclosure sale and affidavit shall be void. If the final judgment does not determine the validity of the foreclosure sale and the deadline for the affidavit to become conclusive has not expired, any party entitled to notice of sale under section 14 may file or assert another legal challenge to the validity of the foreclosure sale under clauses (i) and (ii) above.”; and non-concurred with the House in its amendments in section 1, in line 12, in section 2, in line 16, and in section 4, in line 48, by striking out the figure “3” and inserting in place thereof, in each instance, the following: “ten (10)”; and in section 4, in line 49, by striking out the figure “1” and inserting in place thereof the following: “three (3)”.

titles.
